This structure then allows an additional 15 places within the A stream thus including students who have a strong work ethic to be in a class that gives them the greatest opportunity to build on their hard work. It also allows students with significant learning difficulties to be in a group of students who can have a differentiated program built around their needs.